Your Sitmar Cruise: What It's Like.

A vacation is a precious thing. Your chance to get away. To rest and relax. To enjoy a complete change of pace.

To see new places, meet new people. That's why you should take a Sitmar luxury cruise. It's designed to make your vacation a very special experience.

You'll enjoy a life-style on board that just can't be matched ashore. You'll be able to rest like you never have before, and still take part in a dazzling variety of shipboard activities. You'll meet new friends from every corner of the world. You'll enjoy superb Continental cuisine at every meal, and be pampered with Continental service not only in the dining rooms but everywhere on board.

And, you'll be pleasantly surprised when you compare the price of a Sitmar cruise with the total cost of other, more traditional vacations. Especially when you consider that your cruise fare includes your cabin, four lavish meals daily, 24-hour-a-day service, a wide range of shipboard activities, professional entertainment nightly, and a variety of exciting ports of call.

Best of all, you'll know exactly how much it all costs before you ever leave home.

Our popular 7-day cruises begin and end on Saturday, you'll be able to fly to and from your departure port, and enjoy your luxury cruise, all on one week's vacation time.

We also offer a variety of 10 and 11-day cruises, which are fast becoming the favorites of experienced, value-conscious cruisers. These longer cruises give you more ports, more time in each port, and more time to savor the romance of shipboard life. All for very little more than the cost of a 7-day cruise. And our Air/Sea Program normally allows you to stop-over on your way home to visit friends or relatives, so you can make it a very special two-week vacation.

This year, try a new and totally different experience. One you'll remember far beyond the ordinary vacation. This year, enjoy the Sitmar Experience.

Spacious ships make the difference. The moment you feel the solid teak deck beneath your feet, you'll know that this year's vacation is going to be something special. For one thing, our sister ships, the T.S.S. Fairsea and T.S.S. Fairwind, are larger than most cruise liners, so there's more to do, and more room to stretch out and relax.

Your steward will take your luggage ahead to your cabin while you explore the ship. Notice the three swimming pools, including one for children, instead of the customary one or two. Notice the spacious public rooms, the intimate bars, the nightclubs, the carefully appointed dining rooms.

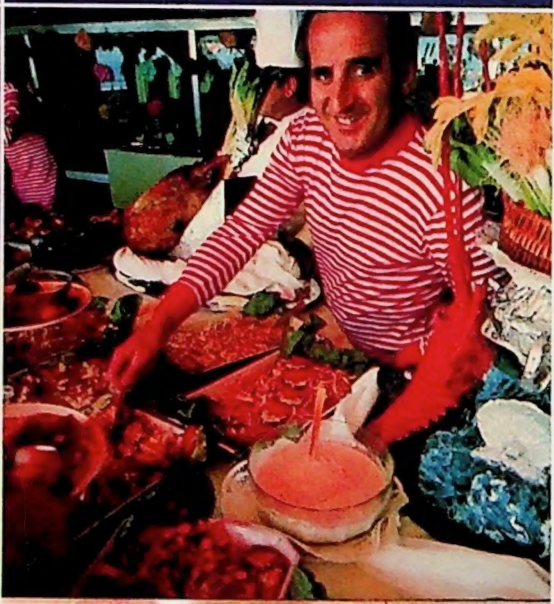

Notice, too, the smiles all around you. That's our friendly Italian crew, trained in the European tradition of hospitable service. (There are nearly 500 crew members on each ship.)

Plenty to do. Nothing to do. You choose. The spaciousness of our ships also allows you the choice of filling your days with activities, or finding a quiet spot on the deck for sunning and dreaming. Enjoy a cup of cappuccino from the vantage point of a deck chair, or join the action at the golf driving range, gymnasium, or ping-pong table. Try the horse races on the Promenade deck, or trapshooting from the stern.

You can choose to sleep late, doze in a deck chair, or settle down comfortably in the quiet of the library.

If bridge is your game, you can earn Master Points while on board. We have expert instructors to sharpen your bidding techniques, and two card rooms where new friends love to congregate. There's also a 330-seat theater showing first-run feature films day and night, a writing room and five open teakwood decks for jogging or strolling. The point is, you can be as active or relaxed as you choose to be.

Bring the family! Some people worry about what to do with the children when they go on a cruise. Sitmar has the perfect solution: take them along! We Italians love children. And we know how to keep them occupied and entertained, too. We have at least two children's counselors aboard each ship to plan activities, a swimming pool exclusively for children, a Play Room for sub-teens, and a discotheque for teenagers. We even have a day nursery for pre-schoolers!

Evenings, older children may attend the early show if accompanied by their parents. You may prefer to ask your cabin steward to look in on younger children while you enjoy the nighttime activities aboard ship.

The dining experience of a lifetime.

Dining at sea is an experience unrivaled on land. And dining aboard the Fairsea or the Fairwind is an extravagant adventure unrivaled by most ships! 54 chefs on each ship apply their artistry to your every meal, serving up an extraordinary selection of fine dishes. Each is an expert in his own culinary specialty, and takes pride in preparing the most exquisite selections you could ask for.

And we follow through with impeccable service in the dining rooms. Like setting an elegant first-class table at every meal, including sterling silver, fine linens and china.

You'd be hard pressed to find a better menu anywhere in the world. And nowhere will you find better, more pleasing service. In the dining rooms, at poolside, in your cabin, in the lounges; wherever you are, that fine Italian service is there. Warmly, graciously, enthusiastically there.

After dark. As the afternoon wanes, you'll want to prepare for the romance of evenings at sea. Take your time dressing for dinner. After all, you've no taxi to grab, nor reservation to make! Start with a sauna, or have your hair done in the beauty salon. Select your best finery from the full-length closet, meet your new friends for a cocktail, and enjoy a superb dinner. Then it's off to the nightly floor show, featuring professional entertainment. There's also a choice of five pubs; two lounges with live music for continuous dancing, and a nightclub that opens at 11 PM for another show and late dancing!

A little hungry? Stop by our Pizzeria! Or the midnight buffet. Then drop in at Le Petit Casino to try your luck.

The vacation of a lifetime. A Sitmar luxury cruise is such a unique experience because it's really several different vacations in one. You'll enjoy the whole beautiful world of the sea: the soft ocean breezes; the clear, azure water stretching to the horizon; the spectacular sunsets; the active, luxurious shipboard life; and some of the most exciting ports of call in the Western Hemisphere.

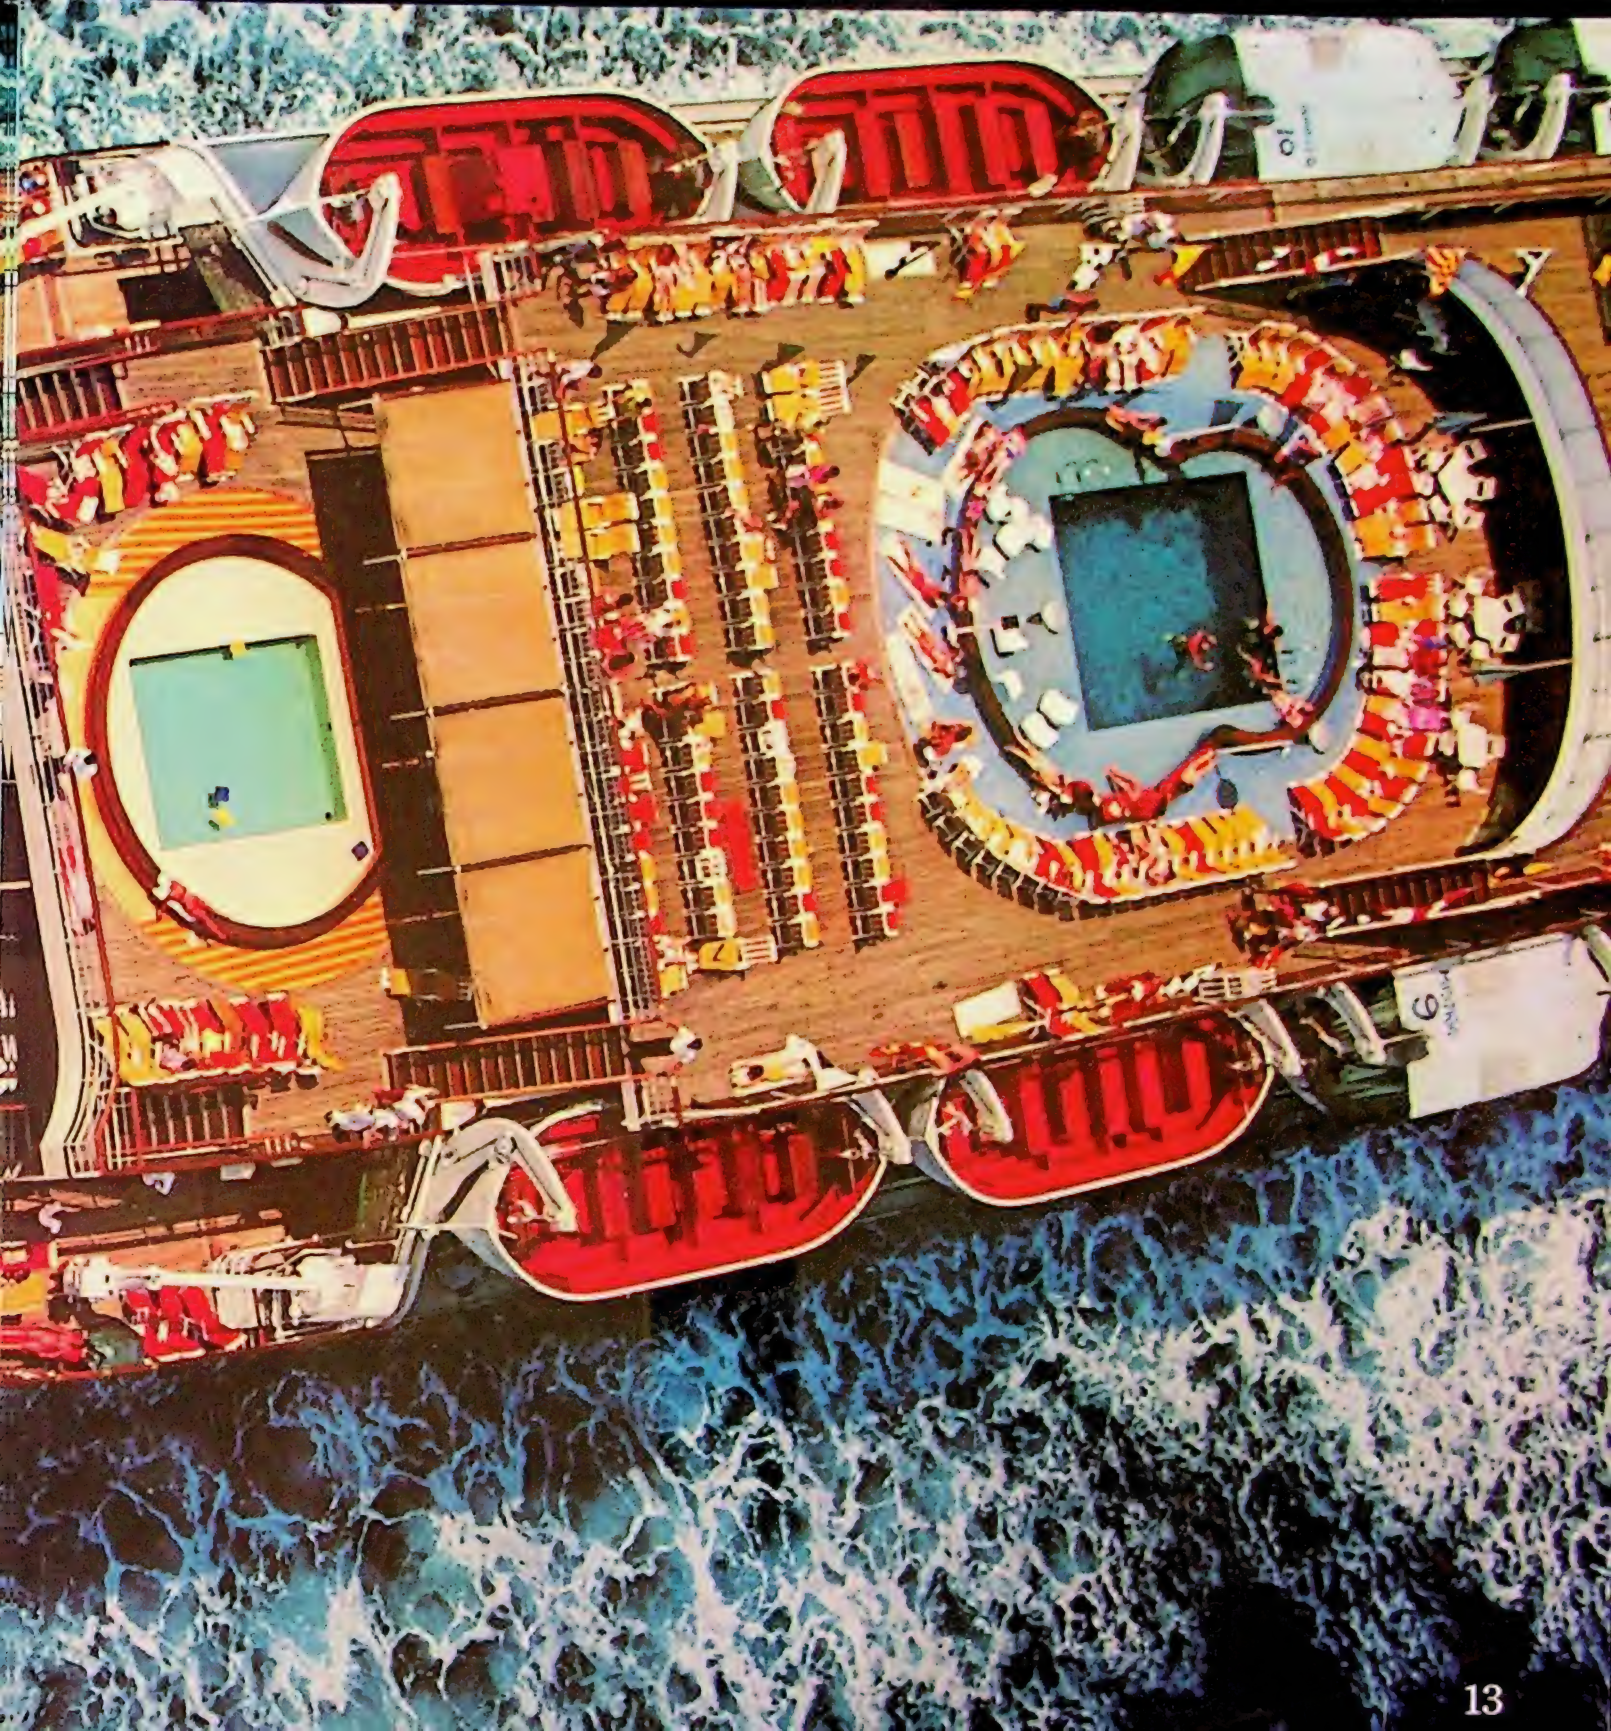

Remember, except for the incidentals and gratuities, all of this is paid for before you board, so you can enjoy yourself thoroughly without ever worrying about spending too much. And it's all yours at a price you can feel comfortable with.

Your Cabin. One of the nicest advantages of taking a Sitmar cruise holiday is that as soon as you've departed, you've arrived. The ship is your home for the entire cruise. And what a home it is.

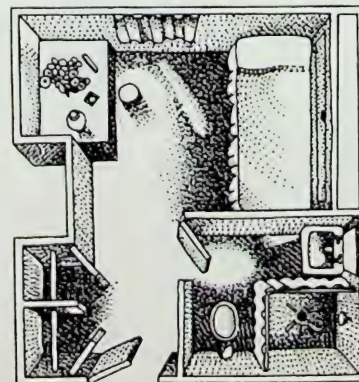

You unpack and settle into an uncommonly spacious and comfortable cabin. One whose decor is elegant, but whose design is distinctly functional. We went to considerable expense

Typical Closet Space. Whichever cabin category you select, you'll have at least one full-length closet for suits and gowns, plus plenty of drawer and storage space for your cruise wardrobe.

Europa 199. (Cabin class K) Typical lower-priced outside cabin. Fully carpeted. One lower bed, one upper bed. Private bath. 4-channel music. Individual thermostat.

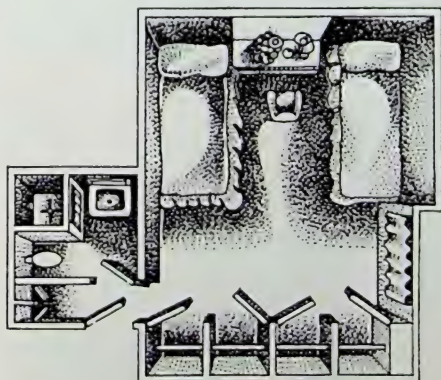

to make it so. By making our cabins larger overall than those of most cruise ships, we're able to offer other advantages. Like extra drawer space, and, unlike many ships, full-length closets. And on a Sitmar ship all rooms are above the water line. Each is also fully carpeted, with individual temperature control and, of course, private bathrooms with showers.

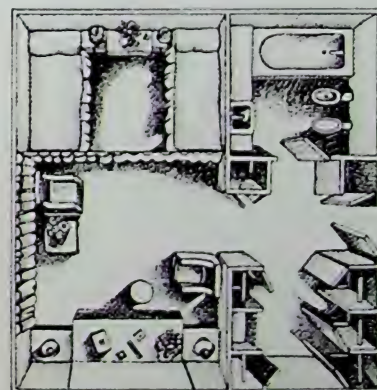

All cabins have 4 channels of music to select from, and, in Suites and Mini-Suites, closed-circuit TV.

Acapulco 120. (Cabin class D) One of our most popular outside cabins. Two lower beds, fully carpeted. Private bath. 4-channel music. Individual thermostat.

Suites. (Cabin class A) Our best. TV, bar, your own tub, large closets and even a refrigerator. Our more moderately-priced Class B Mini-Suites also have a sitting room for entertaining and TV.

The Caribbean and South America. An Adventure in Diversity. 7, 10 and 11-day cruises.

The Caribbean offers more than you ever dreamed. Its sun-bathed, duty-free ports abound in tempting bargains for the shopper; half-hidden art colonies offer exotic paintings and carvings; and the beaches are fantastic.

Take ten or eleven days and cruise deep into her waters, or to South America, and visit an even greater variety of enchanting ports.

Enjoy the exciting night life, including some of the world's finest gambling casinos. Go ashore in Willemstad, Curacao, and Oranjestad, Aruba, and sample the Dutch influence. Notice the French flavor in Martinique, and the mixture of the two cultures in St. Maarten. Sun and swim at beautiful St. Lucia and Antigua.

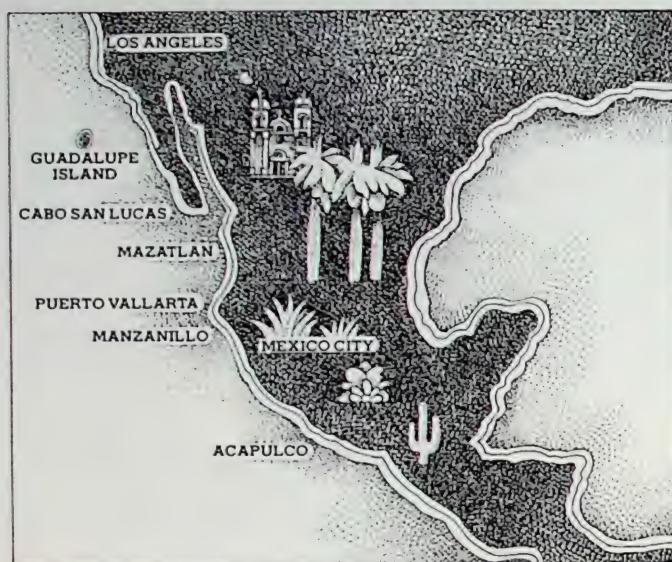

Visit Caracas, the jewel of Venezuela, and one of the most exciting cities in South America. Shop in St. Thomas, in the Virgin Islands. The bargains are not to be believed!

Our 7-day cruises offer you lovely St. Thomas; the adventure of French-African Haiti; the uniquely British charm of Nassau in the Bahamas; and the Old World quality of San Juan.

Whichever of its marvelous islands you choose to visit, the Caribbean offers an enchantment and variety as great as any place on earth.

The Many Faces of Mexico. 7, 10 and 11-day cruises.

Each port in our Mexican itinerary presents a different facet of this vital and changing land. And our 10 and 11-day cruises give you the chance to see them all!

Mexico is a unique blend of Spanish and Aztec cultures. The new Mexico is Acapulco's fabulous resort beaches, fashion boutiques, modern cultural center, and the world-famous High Cliff Divers.

An added attraction on our 11-day cruise is Manzanillo, home of Las Hadas. Its placid atmosphere, beaches, and Mariachi bands will call you back again. Ashore in Puerto Vallarta, you'll walk from magnificent beaches to cobblestoned streets where native crafts are artfully displayed. Or rent a jeep and drive inland for a glimpse of the changing scenery.

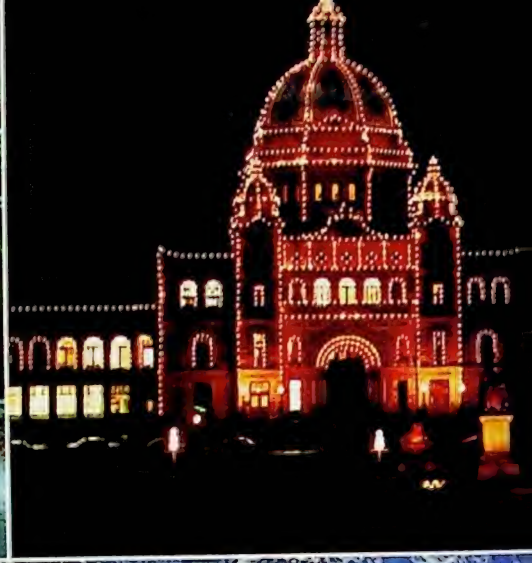

You'll find Mexico to be many things. The gusto of Mazatlán, with its fabulous bargains, famous sports-fishing, and shrimp fresh from the sea. The sparkle of Cabo San Lucas, with miles of beaches, and arches carved by the crashing surf.

You must explore Mexico's vivid and varied ports, know its music, and the charm and warmth of its people, to understand why its popularity is increasing faster than any tourist destination in the Western Hemisphere.

The Grandeur of Canada and Alaska. 14-day cruises.

Imagine magnificently-timbered mountains looming over the shore, receding, range upon range until they become remote and craggy snow-covered peaks. Imagine great rivers of ice plunging into the sea. And imagine enjoying this unparalleled travel adventure to the last frontier in the civilized comfort and luxury of the Fairsea, all the way from the brilliant vistas of San Francisco to the breath-taking grandeur of Glacier Bay.

On the way, you'll have ample time to see the culture, arts and crafts of the Northwest Indian tribes and the Eskimos. You'll savor the excitement of Vancouver. You'll visit Sitka, with its fascinating aura of Russian pioneers; frontier towns like Ketchikan and Juneau, so remote they can only be reached by ship or plane. And you'll stop at Nanaimo, a lovely Canadian village on the Inside Passage.

You'll visit Victoria, more British than Britain, and one of the most charming cities in North America. A visit to the world-famous Butchart Gardens is a must.

A Sitmar cruise to Canada and Alaska is truly a unique experience. A matchless combination of awesome scenery; crisp, cool summer air; delightfully different ports; and the ultimate in travel service and luxury. No wonder it's one of the most desired and talked-about cruise experiences offered today.

Conditions

Personal Baggage: Personal baggage is defined as that which constitutes wearing apparel, toilet articles, and similar effects in actual use and appropriate for the wear, comfort, and convenience of the passenger and not intended for other persons or for commercial use. The Company takes every reasonable care of baggage, but its liability is limited to $250 on total baggage.

Physical Disability: Any physical disability requiring special attention or treatment must be reported to the Company when a reservation is requested. All such passengers will be required to sign a medical release form upon embarkation. The right is reserved to refuse passage to anyone in such a state of health or in such physical condition, because of disease or for any other reason, as to be unfit to travel, or anyone whose condition may constitute a danger to other passengers.

Air Transportation: Air transportation will be via regularly scheduled airline service. However, Sitmar reserves the right to enter into charter flights operated by a qualified tour operator and subject to CAB approval and conditions. On regularly scheduled flights stop-over privileges are subject to the specific airline tariff in use. In the case of charter flights, no stop-overs would be permitted. Direct flights will be used in most cases, and passengers must use the routings as specified in order to qualify for the package price. Ticketing and routing are Sitmar's responsibility.

Due to periodic changes in airline schedules and tariffs, specific routings will be determined at the time of ticketing. These routings will be at Sitmar's discretion and Sitmar reserves the right to change them to enable Sitmar to consolidate groups or meet tariffs to obtain savings for passengers. If due to airline schedules Sitmar is unable to provide same-day connection service to or from an Air/Sea package flight, Sitmar assumes no responsibility for additional expenses incurred by the passenger (e.g., hotels, meals, transfers).

Only full-cruise passengers qualify for the Air/Sea package fare. (Please refer to pages 36-37 for full details on prices.) This fare includes round-trip air transportation between the passenger's city and the port of embarkation, Federal air tax, security tax, round-trip transfers between ship and airport, and accommodations for the selected cruise.

T.S.S. Fairwind and T.S.S. Fairsea are of Liberian registry.

11 years of age, one-half the minimum rate. Under two years of age, one-quarter of the minimum rate. A child (under 12) with one adult will be carried at one-half the minimum occupancy rate. Passenger port taxes are additional and not included due to periodic changes in various government policies. At time of printing, per passenger port taxes for all cruises listed ranged from $3.00 to a maximum of $10.50 per cruise, depending on the ship's itinerary.

Air/Sea Program. Sitmar's Air/Sea Program offers significant advantages to passengers who must fly to Los Angeles (for a Mexico or Trans-Panama Canal cruise), San Francisco (Canada/Alaska), or Port Everglades (Caribbean or Trans-Canal). It is available from more than 70 cities in the United States, Canada, and Mexico for all cruises, except as noted on the facing page.

So no matter where you live, you can realize major savings over buying your cruise and airline tickets separately.

The program includes cruise fares, round-trip coach air fare and transfers to and from the ship. Passenger port taxes are not included. If your city is not listed, you can still save money by arranging to get to one of our Air/Sea cities at your own expense and departing from there. For comfort, convenience and reliability we use only regularly-scheduled airlines, and nearly all flights are day flights.

You'll be met at the airport by a Sitmar representative to assist you with baggage, answer any questions and escort you to the ship in a private motorcoach.

Another feature is Sitmar's "Cruise Plus" Program. In most instances it allows you to stop-over enroute home to sightsee or visit at little or no extra charge. Your travel agent can make all the arrangements for you.

To compute Air/Sea package prices, just add the Air/Sea supplement from your city to the cruise fare you select.

1. These rates represent supplementary charges for computing Air/Sea package prices. They are not air fares. 2. The Air/Sea Program does not apply to the April 10, 1976 Easter cruises on either ship, nor does it apply to the May 29 six-day Fairsea cruise. 3. Except for Trans-Panama cruises, the Air/Sea Program for Cabin Category Q applies only to listed Florida cities for T.S.S. Fairwind sailings and to listed California cities for T.S.S. Fairsea sailings. The Air/Sea Program does not otherwise apply to this category. 4. Air/Sea supplement for round-trip Trans-Panama cruises for T.S.S. Fairwind same as for Caribbean cruises; supplement for round-trip Trans-Panama cruise on T.S.S. Fairsea same as for Mexico cruises.

What not to worry about. Shortly after making your reservations you will receive a copy of our Pre-Sailing Guide. It's full of facts, tips and helpful hints, and tells you everything you need to know to ensure maximum relaxation and enjoyment—from passports and tipping, to what to wear. Some of the things you won't have to worry about, though, are communications and the stability of our ships.

If someone wants to reach you, our shipboard communications center can be reached while at sea by radiogram or any telephone in the United States 24 hours a day. (Details are in your ticket folder.)

Because of our ships' large size and stability, seasickness is a very rare occurrence. At 25,000 tons they are larger than most cruise ships and therefore are among the most stable under any conditions. Both have highly sophisticated, gyroscopic stabilizers to make cruising even smoother. In addition, we sail some of the most placid waters in the world. For the super-extra-queasy there are a variety of things your doctor (or ours, aboard the ship) can recommend.

When it comes to clothes, be casual during the day. Formal evening wear is not required, but there are several formal nights planned for each cruise. Ladies may enjoy dressing up at night and may wish to bring evening gowns or long dresses. For the gentlemen, a tuxedo, dinner jacket, or dark suit, if preferred, is fine. On non-formal nights gentlemen are requested to wear a jacket and tie in the dining room.
